A NEW NORTHSIDE BAPTIZING PLACE. The river edge baptisms have been for a cen tury or more all conducted on the southern suburbs of the town at the sloping shore below Battery Rogers, which has always been known as "The Baptizing Hill." Formerly the white and the colored baptisms all took place in the waters there, but of late years the white bapwaters there, but of late years the white bap-tisms have all been made at an artificial pool in the Washington Street Baptist Church. Until last Sunday the colored people have been bap-tized at "The Baptizing" foot of Jefferson street, as in old times. Last Sunday a new de-parture was made and Rev. John Bell of Beulah Church baptized several converts on the Potomac banks of the town near the foot of Montgomery street.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER. The corporation court yesterday, as anticipated in THE STAR, took up the indictment against Henry and Eliza Allen, colored, charged with the killing of a colored orphan, William Pollard, who had been in their charge and died on the 13th of December last. The testimony showed that the only ground of suspicion in the case was that the skull of the child, which was exhibited in court, was found fractured. It was proved that a fall might have produced the fracture, and there was nextidence whatever to fracture, and there was no evidence whatever to show that the Allens had injured the child. Admitted to Bail. In the Criminal Court this morning Judge Bradley accepted bail in the case of Fred'k Creiglinger, charged with assault with intent to kill a young girl on July 4 last, in $500. Mr. Elterich appeared for the accused and stated that defendant was engaged in firing a salute on July 4, using a beer vent, which burst and a piece struck the girl, seriously injuring her, and was charged with intent to kill in the Police Court and bail fixed at $2,000. The girl was now out of danger and the government was satisfied with $500 bail. Mr. Clagett said that while the case was one in which, had the girl died, would have been manslaughter, the examination made, with the fact that the child is recovering, made the amount suggested satisfac-tory. Bail was then given—Brison Norris and John D. O'Meara going on the bond.

We have reference to James Tharp's "Old Rye Berkeley Whisky." which is one of the most popular brands of liquor on the market. Its true merits have been tested by many Washingtonians, who declare it to be without question the best tonic and by far the healthiest drink as a beverage in this or any other city. It has a national reputation because a large percentage of tional reputation because a large percentage of Congressmen drink no other stimulant except "Tharp's Berkeley." Many of our prominent physicians prescribe it in their daily practice, with excellent results. This pure old brand can only be purchased at THARP'S STORE, 818 F street northwest.
